The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 16, to Saturday December 20, 1760.

St. James's, December 20.

THE following Addreſs of the Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Dr. Robert Hamilton, Profeſſor of Divinity in the Univerſity of Edinburgh, their Moderator; Dr. George Wiſhart, Dr. Alexander Webſter, Dr. George Kay, Dr. John Jardine, Miniſters of Edinburgh; and Gilbert Elliot, Eſq; one of the Lords of the Admiralty, and an Elder of that Church: They were introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders met in the Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, humbly beg Leave to take this firſt Opportunity of preſenting to your Majeſty our ſincere Expreſſions of Condolence for the Loſs which your Majeſty, and the Nation have ſuſtained, by the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign.

When we reflect on the many eminent Virtues which adorned his Character, and the Proſperity we enjoyed under his long and happy Reign, we cannot but be affected with the deepeſt Concern for the Loſs of a Life ſo valuable and important.

At the ſame Time we do moſt thankfully acknowledge the Goodneſs of God, who raiſed up a Succeſſor in that Royal Family, which hath been ſo remarkably the Bleſſing and Glory of theſe Kingdoms.

Permit us, Sir, in all Humility, to approach your Sacred Perſon with our moſt hearty Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown of your Anceſtors. The early Diſcoveries you have given of that Greatneſs of Mind and Goodneſs of Heart, which form true Majeſty, and enſure the Happineſs of a free People; your gracious Declaration, expreſſing your tendereſt Affection for this your native Country, and your Reſolution to preſerve and ſtrengthen the Conſtitution both in Church and State, are to us the ſureſt Pledges of the continued Proſperity and Glory of Great Britain, and make us reflect, with Gratitude to Almighty God, upon that happy Period when our Religion and Liberties were ſecured by the Settlement of the Succeſſion to the Crown in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

Rejoicing with our Fellow Subjects in the Security of all our important Intereſts under your Majeſty's Government, we have a peculiar Satisfaction, and an entire Confidence in the ſolemn Aſſurance your Majeſty has given us, that you will inviolably maintain and preſerve the Rights and Privileges of the Church of Scotland as by Law eſtabliſhed.

Bound as we are to your Majeſty, by every Tye of Duty and Intereſt, we beg you to be aſſured of our unſhaken Fidelity, and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Impreſt with theſe Sentiments, we ſhall not fail to inculcate upon the Minds of a loyal People, the Principles of Duty and Obedience to your Majeſty, and to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to promote the pious Deſign of your Royal Proclamation againſt Prophaneneſs and Immorality.

That the God of all Grace may abundantly bleſs you with all Spiritual and Temporal Bleſſings; that your Reign may be long and glorious; that your Throne may be eſtabliſhed in Righteouſneſs, and in the Affections of your People; that the Lord of Hoſts may continue to bleſs your Arms, and thoſe of your Allies, with ſignal Succeſs; that the Calamities of this juſt and neceſſary War, may ſpeedily terminate in an honourable and laſting Peace; and that when your Majeſty has acted your Part with Honour and Renown as a faithful Servant of God upon Earth, you may ſhine with the higheſt Glory in the heavenly Kingdom, are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in the Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Robert Hamilton, Moderator.

Edinburgh, Nov. 19, 1760.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

THE Zeal and Fidelity the Church of Scotland expreſs for My Perſon and Government, in this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, are very agreeable to Me, and I thank them for it: They may depend upon My conſtant Support and Protection.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Berwick, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Berwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Berwick, met at the County Town this Day, moſt humbly beg Leave, amidſt the Acclamations of your Subjects, to approach your Royal Preſence upon this moſt intereſting Occaſion.

We do moſt ſincerely condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, whom it has pleaſed God to take from us, when he was full of Years, and full of Glory; when the Love of his People could receive no Addition, and when the Nation had nothing to deſire, but the Eſtabliſhment of the Proſperity they enjoyed.

Permit us, Sire, at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors. Your Majeſty's many Princely Virtues give us the moſt ſolid Aſſurances of national Felicity; and your being born a Briton, eſſentially compleats the Union of the two Parts of this Iſland; one great Object of which Union was the Succeſſion of your Majeſty's Royal Houſe to the Crown of the united Kingdom.

We have only now to wiſh, Sire, that your Subjects may be worthy of you, and may deſerve, that Providence ſhould long continue to us the Bleſſing of your Majeſty to reign over us: And we beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt determined Aſſurances of Duty, Zeal and Obedience.

Signed by Order and Appointment of the Meeting, and in their Preſence, at Greenlaw, this Eleventh of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty Years, by Sir Robert Pringle, of Stitchel, Baronet, their Preſes.

Ro. Pringle.

The following Addreſs of the Dean and Faculty of Advocates in Scotland, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Faculty of Advocates

Advocates in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Dean and Faculty of Advocates in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, preſume to approach your Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms. Senſible of the Bleſſings which we ſo long enjoyed under the wiſe, juſt and equal Government of our late Sovereign, we mourn for his Death, and ſhall ever revere his Memory: He whoſe chief Glory it was, to rule according to Law, beheld the united Affections and Confidence of his People increaſe with their Experience of his Virtues, and died full of Days and of Honour, eſteemed and lamented by all the Nations committed to his Care.

The Example of your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, and the Precepts of him whoſe untimely Death we long deplored; your tender Regard for your People; your Knowledge and Love of our invaluable Conſtitution; your early Reſolution to promote Virtue and Religion, and your firm Reliance on Divine Providence, all join in affording us the faireſt Proſpect of the Felicity of your Reign.

Prompted no leſs by Inclination than by Duty, we ſhall in our ſeveral Stations do our utmoſt Endeavours to promote the publick Proſperity, by yielding an uniform and chearful Obedience to your Majeſty's Government, and to the Laws of the Land.

May your Majeſty, by a long and happy Adminiſtration, diſtinguiſhed for Wiſdom, and every Virtue, become more and more the Darling of your People, and the Support of the Liberties of Europe.

Signed in Name and Preſence of, and by Appointment of the Faculty, at Edinburgh, the 3d Day of December 1760, by James Ferguſon, Dean of Faculty.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Whitworth, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Minehead, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with Hearts deeply affected for the Loſs which we and this Nation in general have ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather; and, at the ſame Time, offer our ſincere Congratulations on your happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of your Anceſtors, which we look upon as filled by the Inheritor of the Virtues of your Illuſtrious Houſe, in the Perſon of your Sacred Majeſty.

Permit us, Great Sir, to preſent the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our firm Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and to acknowledge the high Obligations we are under for your Majeſty's gracious Declaration of your Regard for this your Native Country, and our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

Our ardent Deſires are, that Divine Providence may direct your Majeſty's Councils, and that your Fleets and Armies may be bleſſed with Succeſs in their ſeveral Operations, until your Enemies are totally ſubdued, and your Crown eſtabliſhed in Peace; and may your Reign be continued to the utmoſt Date of human Life, as a Bleſſing to the Subjects of your extenſive Dominions, and the Support of the Proteſtant Cauſe throughout Europe; and that a Succeſſion of Monarchs of your Royal Deſcent may perpetuate theſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply for the County of Aberdeen, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply for the County of Aberdeen, for this Purpoſe aſſembled at Aberdeen the 28th of November 1760.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE we humbly offer a ſincere Tribute of Condoleance for the Loſs of our late Sovereign, may your Majeſty graciouſly accept our earneſt Gratulations on your Acceſſion to the Throne of your illuſtrious Anceſtors.

Happy the Nations, who by Divine Promiſe may expect to proſper through the exemplary Piety of a magnanimous young Monarch, born no leſs in the Affection of his People, than in the Heart of his own Dominions.

If Ambition and Avarice prompt our Enemies to perſevere in unjuſt War, we happily know your Majeſty commands the affectionate Abilities of a free and united People; a People rich in the powerful Bleſſings derived from a Sovereign of Fortitude, Moderation and conſtitutional Regard.

May the Almighty preſerve your Life, that your Majeſty's Virtue, Wiſdom and Magnanimity, thro' this arduous and critical Period, may eſtabliſh a juſt and ſolid Peace;

So ſhall the diſtreſſed People of adverſe Powers join their Aſſent to the loyal Exultation of your Majeſty's own Subjects, and enjoy the Bleſſings of Tranquillity from the acknowledged Superiority of Britain's glorious and native young Sovereign.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, by, Sir Arthur Forbes, of Craigievar, Baronet, our Præces. Arthur Forbes, Præces.

The four following Addreſſes of the Magiſtrates and Counſellors of the Boroughs of Craill, Kilrenny, Anſtruther Eaſter, and Anſtruther Weſter, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Craill.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to deign to liſten to us your dutiful and devoted Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of Craill, while we teſtify the deep Concern with which we are affected on the Death of the late King, your Royal Grandfather, in whoſe memorable Reign the Commercial Intereſts of Great Britain were ſo eſſentially promoted, her Warlike Genius revived, and her Military Glory re-eſtabliſhed.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept of our humble Felicitations on that Event ſo important to this Country, your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, at ſo critical a Period, when Europe is deſolated with War, and when the Haughtineſs of our defeated Enemies has not yet condeſcended to ſue for Peace.

Suffer us to congratulate your Majeſty, that at a Juncture, when Firmneſs and Wiſdom are required to guide the Hand of War, the Annihilation of Party-Diſtinctions amongſt your Subjects, has freed your Majeſty from the moſt diſtant Apprehenſions of domeſtick Troubles, and raiſed the united Voice of the People to declare, they hope to find in your auſpicious Reign, an ample Exertion of the Prerogative, the great, the truly Royal Prerogative, that of increaſing the Happineſs of your Subjects, and of adding Luſtre to your Crown.

The Acclamations of your Subjects aſſure your Majeſty, that thoroughly converſant as you are in the Conſtitution of your native Country; and having adopted the Principles of Liberty, the moſt amiable Security of Kings, you may ever depend on the utmoſt Support that Loyalty and Affection can ſupply.

Theſe,

Theſe, Sir, are the preſent Sentiments of your applauding Subjects; and from the Firmneſs of your Majeſty's Mind, and from the Moderation and Integrity of your Diſpoſition, they perſuade themſelves, that your Majeſty's Reign will be uniform, equitable, exemplary, and great.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Kilrenny.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Kilrenny, intreat your Permiſſion moſt humbly to offer our Condoleance on the Death of His late Majeſty, your Royal Grandfather; and to lay at your Majeſty's Feet, this reſpectful Teſtimony of the Expectations which we conceive, and the Joy with which we are poſſeſſed, on the View of approaching Bleſſings, which this your native Country will reap from your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Imperial Dominions.

The Fame of your early Virtues; your Majeſty's thorough Knowledge of the Conſtitution of this Kingdom; your Regard for the Principles of Liberty; and your moſt gracious Declaration to maintain them, have tranſported us with the pleaſing Proſpect, that under your Majeſty's firm, though gentle Government, the Civil and Religious Rights of a free and an admiring People, will be inviolably preſerved; that cheriſhed by your Royal Patronage, Arts and Sciences will be honoured and improved; that Commerce will flouriſh, and be protected; that the Morals of your Subjects will be copied from your illuſtrious Example; and that the lateſt Poſterity, with the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude, will quote the Annals of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Anſtruther Eaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Anſtruther Eaſter, humbly beg Leave to offer this ſincere Tribute of our Sorrow, and to condole with your Majeſty for the Deceaſe of your Royal Grandfather, the Monarch of theſe Realms.

And may it pleaſe your Majeſty, graciouſly to accept of our reſpectful Congratulations on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Dominions, ſo peculiarly favoured by Heaven, in conferring on them ſo diſtinguiſhed a Bleſſing at ſo delicate and critical a Juncture.

Though your Majeſty's Armies at Land have been crowned with the moſt eminent Succeſs; though the Navy of your Enemy, once ſo much boaſted of, exiſts but in the Name; the Sword is ſtill unſheathed, and the Fate of War not finally decided. The arduous Taſk of Compoſing the Paſſions, and Conciliating the Intereſts of hoſtile Potentates; of fixing the Boundaries of your Territories, eſtabliſhing the Rights of your Subjects, ſecuring their Commerce, and confirming their Happineſs by a laſting Peace, is a Glory ſtill reſerved for your Majeſty's Wiſdom, and the Vigour of your Mind; and muſt be the Summit of Felicity to the Sweetneſs of your Temper.

Heaven, Sacred Sir, could give nothing greater than the Power, nor better than the Will, to bleſs Mankind.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borrough of Anſtruther Weſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to vouchſafe an indulgent Hearing to us, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borrough of Anſtruther Weſter, while penetrated with Sorrow for the Loſs which your Majeſty has ſuſtained, we preſent this humble offering of our Condoleance for the Death of the late King, your Royal Grandfather, under whoſe Government, the Glory of the Britiſh Arms roſe to ſo conſpicuous a Height.

And may it pleaſe your Majeſty to deign to permit us, in the Sincerity of our Hearts, to expreſs the Fulneſs of our Joy, and to felicitate your Sacred Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Imperial Dominions.

The Voice of your native Country, unprompted by Flattery at this Juncture, teſtifies the univerſal Sentiments of this free People; when forgetting their former Diviſions, and relinquiſhing their former Animoſities and Diſſentions, they join in Acclamations on your Majeſty's Acceſſion, and, without Heſitation or Reſerve, acknowledge, that great are the Expectations which they have formed from that critical and momentous Event.

They behold the Patron of Liberty ſeated on the Throne, attended by Benevolence, Liberality and Juſtice; and they with Rapture conſider that regal Power, which, under arbitrary Princes, and in deſpotic Governments, becomes the Scourge and Terror of Mankind, is, in your Majeſty's Poſſeſſion, the Inſtrument of pleaſing and of bleſſing Millions. Arbitrary Sovereigns may liſten to the faint and languid Acclamations of a timid, and a ſlaviſh People, and be unfortunately deceived; but your Majeſty has learned from your Study of this Conſtitution, and from the Teſtimonies of undiſſembled Joy, which you have lately received, to know that the happieſt Station upon Earth, is that of a Monarch beloved and revered by his Subjects, for the amiable Qualities and Diſpoſition of his Mind.

By the Countenances and Conduct of your People, your Majeſty muſt have diſcovered that their Profeſſions of Fidelity are the Effuſions of Zeal and Affection; and their fervent Declarations of Support in the preſent important Criſis, are the moſt cordial Expreſſions of Veneration and Gratitude that can be uttered by a Country devoted to a moſt deſerving Sovereign.

Done at Anſtruther Weſter, upon this 28th Day of November, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Haddington, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Hugh Dalrymple, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Haddington.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Haddington, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty, on the great Loſs your Majeſty and your Kingdoms have ſuſtained by the Death of His late Majeſty, your Royal Grandfather.

While, with Hearts full of Gratitude, we reflect on the Bleſſings we have enjoyed during His long and proſperous Reign, we feel, at the ſame Time, the ſincereſt and higheſt Joy, on ſeeing his Throne filled by your Majeſty, the Heir of His Royal Virtues, as well as of His Dominions.

The early Proofs your Majeſty has given of your being poſſeſſed of every Virtue, and the Confidence you have been graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs in the Affections of your Subjects, are to us the ſureſt Pledges, that our Rights and Liberties ſhall be ſecure under your Adminiſtration.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and will take every Opportunity of exerting our Duty and Zeal to promote your Majeſty's Glory, and the Proſperity of your Kingdoms.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Haddington, the eighth Day of December, 1760, by Belhaven, Preſes.

The

The two following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John Gordon, Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Cromarty, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of Supply for the County of Cromarty, beg Leave, with the outmoſt Sincerity of Heart, to expreſs the deep Affliction of us, and the other Inhabitants of this County, on Occaſion of the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign; and with the ſincereſt Love and Veneration to congratulate the Britiſh Dominions, and your Majeſty, the Darling of this your native Country, upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, amidſt the joyful Acclamations of a faithful and free People.

The pleaſing and well grounded Aſſurances we have from your Majeſty's eminent and Royal Virtues, leave us no Room to doubt of ſuch a benign and gracious Adminiſtration as we hoped to have enjoyed under your Royal Father, if it had pleaſed the great Diſpoſer of all Events to have protracted his Life; and permit us here to expreſs our warmeſt Gratitude to the illuſtrious Princeſs, your Majeſty's Royal Mother, for the very diſtinguiſhed Part ſhe has conſtantly acted, which enthrones her in the Hearts of your People.

The Care of a great and free People has devolved upon your Majeſty, placed for the Reward of your Virtues in that Station, for diffuſing Happineſs; and we, in a great Meaſure, already anticipate the Joy and Satisfaction of a Nation truely happy under the Reign of a Sovereign, from whoſe Affections for his native Country, his moſt extenſive Benevolence, and every Royal as well as private Virtue, the remoteſt Parts of his Kingdoms muſt derive many new and ineſtimable Bleſſings, and every Part of them know, whatever is conducive to the Good of the Whole, whether with reſpect to Religion, Liberty, or publick Virtue, the Security of Property, and the equal Encouragement of all, in whatever Part of the Britiſh Dominions they live, or conducive to the Freedom and Liberties of Europe, will be at all Times ſure of meeting with your Majeſty's Royal Approbation, whoſe firſt Act of Government was, a moſt gracious Sollicitation of the Support and Aſſiſtance of every honeſt Man, for Patriotic purpoſes.

Ever devoted to your Majeſty's Service, and ready on every Occaſion to manifeſt our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, by every Act of Zeal, Duty and Affection, we ſhall never ceaſe to put up our moſt fervent Prayers, That your Majeſty may enjoy the Bleſſings of a long, proſperous and glorious Reign over a happy, moſt affectionate and grateful People; and that your Poſterity may ever inherit the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and make you their great Example, as the Defender of Religion and Virtue, both publick and private, and the Supporter and Strengthner of the Conſtitution and Liberties of this your native Country.

Signed by Appointment, and in Preſence of the Meeting, by Captain Adam Gordon, of Ardoch, their Preſes.

Cromarty, Nov. 29, 1760. Ad. Gordon, Preſes.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Barons, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Roſs, met at Tain this 27th Day of November, 1760.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, with our ſincere Condoleance for the Loſs of our moſt excellent and gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather.

Our Grief, on that melancholy Event, at ſo very critical a Time, could only be alleviated by the pleaſing Proſpect of his being ſucceeded by a Prince conſpicuous for the eminent and amiable Virtues of his illuſtrious Royal Progenitors.

We preſume to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, and we are perſuaded, every Briton rejoices with us in the glorious Hope, that your Majeſty, our Britiſh Sovereign, ſhall reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, ever ready, with their Lives and Fortunes, to demonſtrate their Zeal and inviolable Attachment for your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; and may the Britiſh Sceptre continue to be happily ſwayed by your Royal Deſcendants, over a free and united People, to lateſt Poſterity.

John Munro, Preſes.

The two following Addreſſes of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Burghs of Culroſs and Dunfermline, have been preſented to His Majeſty by Robert Haldane, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Culroſs, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,
May it it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Culroſs, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to addreſs your Majeſty, and offer our ſincere and dutiful Congratulations on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Native Country.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, to expreſs the deep Senſe we have of the ſevere Loſs which we have ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt gracious King, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, whoſe Memory will be ever dear to a grateful People, and the Loſs of whom can only be repaired by the Virtues of His Succeſſor.

The ſame generous Sentiments, which governed the Conduct of the amiable Prince, from whom you derive your Birth; and the happy Effects of the Guardian Care of that Excellent Princeſs to whom we owe the perfect Cultivation of theſe innate Virtues, afford us the certain Proſpect of many future Bleſſings to theſe Kingdoms, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

That the Favour of the Almighty, whoſe indulgent Providence has beſtowed ſo many Marks of peculiar Care on this Nation, and in a particular Manner, in giving us ſuch a Prince to aſcend the Throne of theſe Realms, may be continued to your Majeſty and your lateſt Poſterity; and that you may be enabled to terminate in an advantageous and laſting Peace, this juſt and ſucceſsful, though burthenſome War, is our conſtant and fervent Prayer.

Signed by our Appointment, at Culroſs, the firſt Day of December, 1760 Years, by Robert Gedder, Chief Magiſtrate.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunfermline, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,
May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunfermline, in Council aſſembled, with Hearts full of the warmeſt Duty and Affection, beg Leave humbly to addreſs your Majeſty, and to join the general Voice of all your People, in this great and united Kingdom, upon this moſt important and intereſting Occaſion.

Fortunate in a Circumſtance, which animates us with a peculiar Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; This your Majeſty's Royal Burgh having been long the Favourite Reſidence of your Royal Anceſtors the Kings of Scotland; and honoured noured with the Nativity of that Excellent Princeſs Elizabeth, through whom the Government of thoſe Realms has been happily eſtabliſhed in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family.

We feel and ſincerely lament the ſudden Loſs of our late moſt juſt and gracious Sovereign: But we alſo ſhare the Conſolation, which ſprings in every Britiſh Heart, from a pleaſing Review of His long and happy Reign, and from the certain Proſpect of glorious Years to come under the Government of a Prince, who unites the Prudence and Virtues of Age, to the active Spirit and Vigour of Youth.

It is with the utmoſt Satisfaction we already begin to feel the happy Effects of thoſe noble and generous Sentiments ſo early implanted in your Royal Breaſt, by that amiable Prince who gave you Birth; and which have been ſo happily confirmed by the Illuſtrious Example of his Royal Conſort: And on this ſecure and auſpicious Foundation we build the firmeſt Confidence and Belief, that the ſame juſt Principles of Government, the Principles of Moderation and Juſtice in Peace, and of publick Virtue and Conſtancy in War, which ſuſtained His late Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign to a glorious Concluſion, will continue to animate, and ſtill more illuſtriouſly diſtinguiſh, the Meaſures of your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, and that every publick Bleſſing, which the beſt Form of Government in the World, under a wiſe and virtuous Direction, can produce, will be aſſured to this powerful Nation, by your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Native Country.

Signed by our Provoſt at our Deſire, at Dunfermline, the firſt Day of December, 1760 Years.

Da. Turnbull, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Pellinweem, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Pellinweem.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit us your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of the Borough of Pellinweem,

To condole with your Majeſty for the afflicting Loſs, which you and the Nation have ſuſtained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather;

And in the moſt reſpectful Manner, to congratulate your Majeſty on that important Event, your happy Acceſſion to the Throne.

Humanity, the Love of Juſtice, tempered with Benevolence and Moderation; a Zeal for the Cultivation of Learning, Piety, and Morals, accompanied with a Solicitude for the Preſervation of Civil and Religious Liberty; a cautious Prudence to plan, and a Firmneſs of Mind to execute, are thoſe Qualities, which moſt adorn a Crown.

And we have been taught, from your Majeſty's Education, from the Fame of your Virtues, and from the univerſal Acclamations of a happy People, to expect, Sir, that theſe will diſtinguiſh and dignify your Reign.

The entire Union of the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects, promiſes at once Tranquility to your Majeſty, and Proſperity to this Kingdom; and the Confidence which they unanimouſly place in your Majeſty's Wiſdom, for conducting, with Spirit and Vigour, the various Operations of War, at the moſt critical Conjuncture, we flatter ourſelves will induce your faithful Subjects to contribute, with Chearfulneſs, the Supplies neceſſary to inſure a glorious and a laſting Peace.

That the Almighty Protector of Kings and Kingdoms may long preſerve your Majeſty on the Throne of Great Britain, and thereby furniſh your Majeſty with a laſting Series of Opportunities of gratifying that nobleſt of all Deſires, which glows with Fervency in your Royal Breaſt, the Deſire of rendering your People glorious and happy, is our ardent Prayer.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty, Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Francis Godolphin and John Evelyn, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty, Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſton, in Cornwall.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept the humble Congratulations of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty, Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſton, on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Britiſh Throne, and at the ſame Time, in Honour of his heroic Virtues, permit us to drop a Tear of Gratitude to the glorious Memory of your Royal Grandfather, our late Illuſtrious Sovereign.

It is with the higheſt Admiration and Joy, that we ſee the ſame exalted Virtues implanted in your Royal Breaſt, already moſt effectually providing for your own Glory, and the Happineſs of your Kingdoms. For, if the Divine Favour be the moſt fruitful Source of Bleſſings to a People; if to poſſeſs the Hearts of free-born Subjects, be the juſteſt Cauſe of Glory to a Prince, what new Felicities may we not expect, what unrivalled Luſtre muſt adorn your Crown, whoſe firſt Royal Mandate directly tended to ſecure the one, and whoſe firſt endearing Declarations to your Parliament cannot but command the other.

Happy in theſe early Proofs of your Majeſty's affectionate Attachment to your native Country, how ſhall a grateful People better expreſs their Senſe of your Royal Goodneſs, than by chearfully contributing their moſt zealous Efforts to oppoſe the ambitious Deſigns of your Enemies, and ſupport the Cauſe of your faithful Allies? Enemies, who, as if delighted with the Ravages of War, obſtinately reject the Offers of Accommodation; for which alone your Majeſty's victorious Sword remains unſheathed.

May your Majeſty be enabled ſucceſsfully to accompliſh this great End; and after a long and proſperous Reign over this favoured People, may you, ſtill happier than your Glorious Grandfather, tranſmit your Kingdoms to a Prince of your own illuſtrious Family in greater Splendour, Wealth and Peace!

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of this Borough, the 11th Day of December, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Luggerſhall, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Edward Herbert, Eſq; one of their Repreſentives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Luggerſhall, in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and others the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Luggerſhall, beg Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to approach your Royal Preſence, that we may not be wanting at this Juncture, in our Aſſurances of the moſt unfeigned and zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and that we, with others, may be permitted to add our Tribute of Condoleance to that united Concern, which has been expreſſed in theſe Kingdoms for the Loſs of our late Moſt Excellent Sovereign; a Loſs which we equally have felt with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, jects, and are ſenſible could not have been alleviated, or repaired, but by ſuch a pleaſing Proſpect of Felicity, as is preſented to us, in the Conſideration of ſo many Princely Virtues, as have manifeſted themſelves from your earlieſt Years, as well as in the Beginning of this your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and which afford us a well-grounded Hope of being continued, by the Bleſſing of Providence, to the Honour of your Majeſty, and to the Proſperity of your People.

We alſo beg, Moſt Gracious Sovereign, that your Majeſty will deign to believe that there never will be wanting in any the meaneſt of us, a grateful and ardent Deſire to contribute the utmoſt of our Power to the Glory and Peace of your Majeſty's Government, nor an Ambition to ſeize every Opportunity which we may have, in our ſeveral Stations and Capacities, of diſtinguiſhing ourſelves among the moſt dutiful and moſt affectionate of your Majeſty's Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Edinburgh, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lauderdale, Lord High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty, upon the Demiſe of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign.

With the moſt grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoyed under his juſt, mild, and glorious Reign, we revere his Memory, and deplore his Death.

Our Grief could only be alleviated, our Loſs repaired, by the Succeſſion of your Majeſty, the Heir of His Kingdoms, His Virtue and Renown.

Permit us then, Sir, with Sentiments of the warmeſt Loyalty, to congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms, and to declare the firm Confidence we have in your Majeſty's great Abilities to ſupport the Dignity of your Imperial Crown, and increaſe the Happineſs of your People.

We beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, and of our ſteady Reſolution to promote, with Ardour and Unanimity, the Glory of your Reign.

With Zeal and Fervency we ſhall ever pray, That your Majeſty may be long preſerved the Darling of your Subjects, the Guardian of Liberty, the Pattern and Protector of Piety and true Religion.

Edinburgh, 5th of December, 1760. The Meeting order this humble Addreſs to be ſigned by their Preſes, in their Name.

Ro. Dundas, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Glouceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Glouceſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Glouceſter, humbly preſume to approach your Sacred Perſon, that we may offer our Compliments of Condoleance, on the Death of our late moſt Excellent Sovereign, to whoſe Glorious Memory we are deſirous to pay our due Tribute of Praiſe and Gratitude; and at the ſame Time to preſent to your Majeſty, our ſincere and united Congratulations, on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; under whoſe auſpicious Reign (as an Alleviation of our Sorrow) we promiſe to ourſelves not only a Continuance, but an Increaſe of our Felicity.

Your Majeſty has undoubtedly begun your Reign at a very critical and difficult Conjuncture; but at the ſame Time, there is no Advantage to theſe Kingdoms which we are not encouraged to hope for, from the Contemplation of thoſe Princely Virtues, which you have ſo early imbibed, and which have been confirmed by the Example of your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Loſs we deplore.

Pleaſed with the happy Unanimity that now ſubſiſts among us, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall be our conſtant Care and Study, to promote its Continuance, and to diſcountenance every Diſtinction, except that of a laudable Emulation among your Subjects, in exerting their beſt Endeavours, to promote the Welfare and Proſperity of the Publick, and to preſerve to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government the Hearts and Affections of a free and happy People.

We are ſenſible of our being engaged in an expenſive and neceſſary War; but as the Cauſe was juſt, ſo our Endeavours to ſupport it will be free and chearful, till your Majeſty ſhall be able to procure us the Bleſſings of Peace.

May your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and happy, and a ſhining Example to all ſucceeding Princes; and may the Crown you poſſeſs, with the general Voice and Approbation of an affectionate and united People, deſcend and continue in your Royal Houſe, till all earthly Crowns ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Nicholas Bayly, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey, with all Sincerity condole with you upon the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory.

At the ſame Time we do gratefully and thankfully acknowledge, that God, in His great Goodneſs, has amply repaired this Loſs to us, in placing your Majeſty upon the Throne of your Anceſtors.

In theſe Times of War and Bloodſhed, when the Ruin of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and publick Liberty of Europe, is meditating Abroad, and when at Home Religion ſeemed too much deemed an Impoſture, how powerful does the Hand of Providence appear in raiſing your Majeſty, as His Inſtrument, to carry Deliverance to the one, by the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Councils, and to the other Shame and Conviction, by the true Piety of your Royal Example.

Your Majeſty's gracious Intention to ſupport the Religion, the Laws, the Liberties of this your native Country, makes the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms unſpeakable, makes you the great Bleſſing of the preſent Age; conſcious of the Truth and Integrity of theſe Intentions, the Hearts of theſe Nations, as one man, are turned unto you; Faction is abaſhed; and Diſaffection is no more. Under theſe Circumſtances, well may we Britons glory in your Majeſty's being a Briton.

May your Reign, in Length and Glory, exceed that of any of your moſt renowned Forefathers; may it be one continued Flow of Proſperity, and may you alway be eſteemed the Delight of human Kind.

Magdeburg, November 29. We have received Advice, from his Majeſty's Head Quarters at Meiſſen, That he has detached a Body of about eight thouſand ſand Men, in Cavalry, Infantry, and Huſſars, under the Command of the Generals Sallern, Aſcherſleben, and Linden, to march through Thuringe towards Gottingen, and there act in Concert with Prince Ferdinand, in his preſent Operations againſt that Place. This Corps was in Motion the 26th; and, it is ſuppoſed, will join his Serene Highneſs's Army the 6th of next Month. Excluſive of this Reinforcement, the King has likewiſe ſent another, of about fifteen hundred Men, drawn from the Garriſon of Magdebourg, to General Kielmanſegg, who commands a detached Corps of the Allied Army, in the Neighbourhood of Gottingen. We learn, That General Hulſen, being on his March to Chemnitz, the Army of the Empire had retired in the Night of the 21ſt paſt towards Hoff in Franconia; and that the Duke of Wurtemberg, upon this Intelligence, had likewiſe left Weimar the 22d, and had marched to Arnſtadt.

Hamburgh, Dec. 2. We are informed, That the Auſtrians had evacuated Landſhut in Sileſia, on the 19th of November, leaving behind them 16,000 Ammunition Loaves, beſides a conſiderable Quantity of Forage: That the Ruſſians were now entirely diſlodged out of the New Marche; and that General Werner, having been reinforced by Prince Eugene of Wurtemberg, who arrived the 20th paſt at Schwedt, would likewiſe ſoon oblige General Totleben, who yet occupied Coſlin and Stolpe, to leave both thoſe Places.

Warbourg, Dec. 4. The Situation of the Troops in theſe Parts has received no material Alteration lately. Thoſe on the other Side of the Weſer, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand, have moved forward, and are now cantoned about Gottingen: His Serene Highneſs's Head Quarters have been fixed, ſince the 25th paſt, at Harſte.

There have been ſeveral ſmart Skirmiſhes on the Side of Gottingen, particularly one on the 29th paſt at Heydemunden upon the River Werra, which Poſt Major General Bridenbach, at the Head of the two Regiments of Hanoverian and Brunſwick Guards, with a Detachment of Cavalry, attacked; and, having carried it, took Poſſeſſion of the Town, which was abandoned by the French Detachment, Part of which paſſed the River in Boats, while the others threw themſelves into an Intrenchment which covered the Paſſage, and which our Troops made ſeveral Attempts to force, but without Succeſs. At length, our People being much galled by the Fire from the Enemy's Redoubts on the other Side of the River, General Breidenbach could not carry his Point, and was obliged to fall back into the Town, from whence he retired at Midnight; and the Enemy did not retake Poſſeſſion of it till Twenty-four Hours afterwards. Our Loſs, upon this Occaſion, amounted to about 150 private Men: Five of our Officers were killed, and ſix wounded.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th Day of December, 1760.

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

This Day the Right Honourable Philip Yorke, Eſq; commonly called Lord Viſcount Royſton, was, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, and took His Place at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, December 20.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Oneſiphorus Paul, Eſq; of Woodcheſter in the County of Gloceſter, High Sheriff of the ſaid County.

Whitehall, December 16, 1760.

Whereas it hath been humbly repreſented to the King, that on the 13th Day of this Inſtant December, between the Hours of Five and Eleven in the Evening, the Dwelling-houſe of Iſaac Pacatus Shard, Eſq; at Peckham in the County of Surry, was maliciouſly attempted to be burned down, by ſetting Fire to the Bed and Bed-Cloaths of a ſpare Bed-Chamber, and to the Toilet in the ſaid Room, which ſtood at ſuch a Diſtance from the ſaid Bed, as to have no poſſible Communication with the ſame; His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery, and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſon or Perſons concerned therein, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon, to any one of them, except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to the ſaid Bed, Bedcloaths, and Toilet, who ſhall diſcover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo as he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a further Encouragement, I the ſaid Iſaac Pacatus Shard, do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any of the Offenders.

J. P. Shard.

Derby, December 13, 1760.

His Majeſty's Deputy Lieutenants for this County have appointed a Meeting to be holden at the George Inn in Derby, on the 26th Day of this Inſtant December, when all Perſons that are qualified and willing to ſerve as Officers in the Militia for the ſaid County, are deſired to attend, and deliver in, or cauſe to be delivered in, their Names, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authorized to receive the ſame, ſpecifying the Rank in which they are willing to ſerve.

John Bateman, Clerk to the Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

Navy Office, December 15, 1760.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Monday the 5th of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning preciſely, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſupply His Majeſty's Yards at Deptford and Woolwich with Braziers Wares on a ſtanding Contract, that they may attend with their Propoſals at that Time.

Victualling Office, December 17, 1760.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wedneſday next, the 24th Inſtant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for Oxen and Hogs for Sea Store for the Ports of London and Dover; and that none of the Oxen for the Port of London are to weigh leſs than ſeven Hundred Weight each; nor the Hogs for the ſaid Port than one Hundred Weight each.

Cuſtom-houſe, London, Dec. 19, 1760.

The Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms gives Notice, that he ſhall be ready, on the 29th of December Inſtant, and the four following uſual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that became due between the 12th of November 1760, excluſive, and the 3d of December following, inclusive, without Intereſt.

The ſaid Receiver General gives this further Notice, that in Caſe any of the ſaid Debentures ſhall remain unpaid for want of being tendered for Payment on one of the five Days above-mentioned, that no Intereſt will be paid thereon.

This is to give Notice, that the firſt Days appointed for the Payment of Salvage, Prize or Head Money for the Captures undermentioned, (the firſt being a retaken Ship, and the five laſt French Privateers) are here inſerted after their reſpective Names, and his Majeſty's Ships and Commanders that took them, to wit.
